NOMINATION OF BENEFICIARY FORM

NOMINATION CHECKLIST

Name

Member Number

1. A valid nomination covers all credit union property (unless otherwise specified) but that property may be assigned to one person or divided between various nominees. Any clearly identified person can be a nominee - it does not necessarily have to be next of kin.
2. Where only one person is nominated, that person will be the sole beneficiary of your credit union property subject to the maximum permitted by law which is £20,000.
3. The nomination will not be affected by the terms of your will and is not revocable or variable by your will or any codicil to it.
4. Your marriage, civil partnership or divorce, after completing a nomination, automatically revokes that nomination - you may wish to consider completing a new nomination at that time.
5. Your marriage, civil partnership or divorce after completing a nomination automatically revokes that nomination; but if any property of the member has been transferred by an officer of the Credit Union in pursuance of the nomination in ignorance of a marriage, civil partnership or divorce contacted by the nominator subsequent to the date of the nomination, the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the Credit Union and the Credit Union shall be under no liability to any other person claiming the property.
6. Completion of a new nomination revokes all previous nominations
7. In order to be valid, the form of nomination must either:
 - (a) be made in a book at the registered office of the Credit Union; or
 - (b) be delivered to the registered office of the Credit Union during your lifetime.

I declare that I have read and fully understand the information outlined above
